June 15, 2009

On May 27, 2009, the Federal Trade Commission filed an action against The Rodis Law Group, Inc., America's Law Group, and The Financial Group, Inc. dba Tax Relief ASAP. The U.S. District Court issued a Temporary Restraining Order placing the assets of those companies in receivership and appointed Robb Evans & Associates LLC as Temporary Receiver to take over possession and control of those companies. The companies will be temporarily closed and will not be able to negotiate with any lenders or tax authorities or take any further steps to delay or prevent foreclosure sales which may be pending or threatened against your property.

If you have authorized any of these entities to discuss or negotiate on your behalf with your lender or tax authority, the Temporary Receiver strongly recommends that you immediately contact your lender or tax authority directly.

We cannot process any refunds at this time. We do not know how refund requests will be handled. The U.S. District Court will make the final determination as to how refund requests will be handled and as to any future operations of the companies.

If additional information becomes available, we will post it on our website at www.robbevans.com.

For more information on the case, you can call the FTC Hotline toll free at (888) 308-0934. As discussed on the FTC's Hotline message, you can also call (888) 995 HOPE or get information online at www.hopenow.com.
