COMMUNICATING WITH THE RECEIVER
November 15, 2007

The Receiver was appointed by the Court to represent the interests of all investors in the Lake Shore matter to ensure that everyone that is entitled to file a claim in this action has an opportunity to do so. While performing its duties and obligations, the Receiver has been in contact with many individual investors as well as attorneys that represent investors and is available to communicate with any and all investors regardless of whether or not an investor is represented by an attorney. In other words, you do not have to have an attorney to contact the Receiver, to file a claim or to recover funds that were obtained as a result of the alleged fraud. If you have been solicited by an attorney to represent you in filing a claim, the Receiver is happy to talk to you or to your attorney, but you are not obligated to have an attorney in order to pursue a claim or to communicate with the Receiver.
