PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

On December 6, 2002, Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission filed its Complaint for a permanent injunction and other equitable relief in this matter pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b). On December 9, 2002, the Court granted Plaintiff's application for a TRO and scheduled a hearing on the OSC for December 23, 2002. The individual Defendants filed opposition papers on December 19, 2002, and Plaintiff filed reply papers on December 20, 2002.

At the hearing on December 23, 2002, the individual Defendants, through their counsel, consented to entry of an extension of the TRO and a new hearing date of January 8, 2003 was

2 individual Defendants advised the Court that they had agreed to stipulate to further extend the TRO
3 and to continue the hearing on the OSC to allow additional time for discovery. The Court approved
4 the parties' stipulation, establishing a briefing schedule and continuing the hearing until March 24,
5 2003. At the parties' request, the Court subsequently modified the briefing schedule and hearing 6 date.

7 On March 25, 2003, the individual Defendants filed a memorandum of points and 8 authorities in opposition to the entry of a preliminary injunction and the appointment of a 9 permanent receiver, including numerous declarations and exhibits. On April 2, 2003, Plaintiff filed 10 a reply brief, as well as numerous declarations. On June 10, 2003, a hearing was held at which 11 counsel for Plaintiff and the individual Defendants presented oral argument.

2. Opening or causing to be opened any safe deposit boxes titled in the name of any of the named Defendants, or subject to access by any of the named Defendants;

3. Incurring charges or cash advances on any credit or debit card issued in the name, singly or jointly, any of the named Defendants, or any corporation, partnership, or other entity directly or indirectly owned or controlled by any of the named Defendants; and

B. The freeze imposed in this Section shall not be construed to apply to assets that the Individual Defendants acquired following service of the Temporary Restraining Order or acquire

1 following entry of this Preliminary Injunction unless such assets (i) were or are derived from 2 activity that was prohibited by the Temporary Restraining Order or is prohibited by this Preliminary
3 Injunction, or (ii) are received as the result of any insurance coverage paid in connection to this 4 lawsuit;

5 C. Robb Evans is appointed as Special Master with respect to the release of any 6 personal assets of the individual defendants and the payment of attorneys fees. The Special Master 7 shall have the following duties and powers:

- 8 1. The Special Master shall have the authority to approve the release of frozen 9 assets, subject to the terms and factors set forth below in this Section, and 10 subject to review by the Court in the event the parties disagree with any 11 determination made by the Special Master and they are unable to work out a 12 solution among themselves;
- 13 2. The Special Master shall determine whether the living expenses or attorneys 14 fees and expenses which any individual Defendant seeks to pay pursuant to 15 Paragraph D of this Section are reasonable;
- 16 3. The Special Master shall determine whether any proposed release of frozen 17 assets is necessary, taking into account other sources of income. The 18 individual Defendants subject to the asset freeze shall cooperate with the 19 Special Master by providing all information and documents necessary to 20 allow him to assess the amount of income that they are receiving from other 21 sources. The Special Master shall approve of the release of frozen funds

26 attorneys and independent contractors as he deems advisable or necessary in 27 the performance of his duties. The Special Master and his deputies, 28

2 for reasonable fees and expenses from the Receivership estate in accordance 3 with Section XVI of this Order, below.

7 on the tenth day of each month up to $12,000.00 from his frozen assets for the limited purpose of 8 paying reasonable living expenses and reasonable expenses incurred in the defense of any of the 9 defendants in this action, including attorneys fees and costs against future billings rendered and 10 approved, but not attorneys fees and costs for past bills incurred. The court has reduced the 11 estimated amount to be used to treat Defendant's autistic son. Upon the provision of adequate 12 documentation of bills paid over a substantial period and explanation given by care providers for 13 the need of such services, the court may reconsider an increase in the estimated amount.

14 2. Defendants Richard and Tiffani Von Alvensleben shall through December 15 2003 be permitted to obtain on the tenth day of each month up to $12,000.00 from their frozen

17 incurred in the defense of any of the defendants in this action, including attorneys fees and costs
18 against future billings rendered and approved, but not attorneys fees and costs for past bills
19 incurred. Beginning in January 2004, this monthly amount shall decrease to $10,600.00.

20 3. Defendant Harry Flagg may spend no more than $7,000 per month on 21 reasonable expenses incurred in the defense of any of the defendants in this action, including 22 attorneys fees and costs against future billings rendered, but not attorneys fees and costs for past 23 bills incurred.

24 Provided, however, that (i) payment of attorneys fees as described in this Paragraph must be 25 approved by the Special Master, and (ii) the individual Defendants and their counsel shall not allow 26 more than $30,000 in attorneys fees and costs to accrue before being approved by the Special
27 Master, and (iii) all money so paid from frozen funds shall be applied only toward outstanding 28

1 balances for services and costs that were rendered or incurred after the last day included in any bills
2 that have previously been submitted to the Special Master for review;

3 Provided further that payment of any money toward any outstanding balance for attorneys
4 fees and expenses that have been previously submitted to the Special Master for review may be 5 paid out of frozen assets as the Court shall determine is proper and just after briefing from the 6 parties, with a deadline of ten days after entry of this Order for any brief from any of the individual
7 Defendants, and a deadline of seven days after service of the defendants' brief for any reply from 8 Plaintiff.
