NOTICE TO CLIENTS OF THE ABOVE-ENTITIES

April 30, 2018

On March 14, 2018, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) filed a lawsuit against the entities listed above. The U.S. District Court approved a motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and appointed Robb Evans & Associates LLC as Temporary Receiver to take possession and control of the Receivership Entities.

The Court hearing on a Preliminary Injunction that was scheduled for May 3, 2018 has been taken off the Court's calendar. A tentative settlement of the lawsuit has been reached between the FTC, the Receivership Entities, Adam Bowser, Chris Bowser, and Jody Marshall. The tentative settlement requires approval of the FTC Commissioners and the Court.

The business operations of the Receivership Entities will not be re-started.

If you believe you have products stored at Receivership Entities premises, please send an email to fa@robbeva.com with a detailed list of the inventory. In the near future, the Temporary Receiver will be taking steps to return inventory to clients.

As additional information becomes available, it will be posted on the Temporary Receiver's Website.

It is too early in the receivership to determine if funds will be available for client refunds.
