Dear Potential Creditor:

RE: Your Pre-Receivership Claim with Forex Liquidity LLC

You may have learned that Forex Liquidity LLC (FXLQ) is a Receivership Entity included in an action filed by the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission. On December 14, 2007 the U. S. District Court appointed Robb Evans & Associates, LLC as the Receiver of FXLQ. As a result, the FXLQ is now closed and all contact will be through the Receiver's office at the letterhead address.

All liabilities and other claims of FXLQ will be resolved through a Claim Administration process. If you have not received a notice from the Receiver by postal service or electronic mail, and believe that you have a claim, please provide the Receiver with your invoice and related documents to support your claim.

You have 30 calendar days from the date of this notice to submit your claim and related supporting documents. If you fail to timely submit your claim, your claim will not be considered and will be forever barred.

If we receive a timely claim from you and reject your entire claim or a portion of your claim we will attempt to resolve the claim dispute through negotiation. As part of this negotiation, the Receiver will ask you to provide documentation to support your objection. If we are unable to resolve the dispute through negotiation, the Receiver shall resolve your objection by motion to the United States District Court.

Please provide your contact information, including the mailing address where the distribution check(s) can be mailed to in the future by the Receiver.

Very truly yours,

Robb Evans & Associates LLC, Receiver
