MONETARY JUDGMENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the Commission and against Stipulating Defendants Jeffrey P. Wolf and JPW Consultants, Inc., for equitable monetary relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress, in the amount of $60,000,000.00 (an estimate of the total amount of consumer injury caused by Defendants during the time that Stipulating Defendants Jeffrey P. Wolf and JPW Consultants, Inc. were involved); and further that Judgment is hereby entered in favor of the Commission and against Stipulating Defendant Alfred H. Wolf, for equitable monetary relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress, in the amount of $115,000,000.00 (an estimate of the total amount of consumer injury caused by Defendants during the time that Stipulating Defendant Alfred H. Wolf was involved). Provided, however, that the above Judgments for equitable monetary relief against Stipulating Defendants Jeffrey P. Wolf, JPW Consultants, Inc., and Alfred H. Wolf shall be suspended upon the satisfaction of the obligations imposed by Subsection A of this Section, and subject to the conditions set forth in Section VI of this Order.

A. Stipulating Defendants shall immediately upon entry of this Order liquidate, for turn-over to the FTC or its designated representative, all assets held as of the date of the entry of this Order in the following two accounts, which were disclosed in response to Item 14 on the financial statement of Alfred H. Wolf dated July 31, 2007, that Alfred H. Wolf provided to the FTC:

1. Account titled "Jeffrey P Wolf and Alfred H Wolf JTWROS" held at Wachovia Securities, LLC, and shown on the above financial statement as having a "Current Fair Market Value" of $500,000; and
2. Account titled "WBNA Collateral Account FBO Alfred H Wolf and Shirley K Wolf JTWROS" held at Wachovia Securities, LLC, and shown on the above financial statement as having a "Current Fair Market Value" of $1,500,000.

The FTC acknowledges that the current fair market values of these accounts may be lower due to agreed-upon releases and/or market conditions.

Upon liquidation of the above two accounts, Wachovia Securities, LLC shall transfer directly to the FTC or its designated agent, within five (5) business days of the date of entry of this Order, all assets held in the above accounts, via wire transfer in accordance with directions provided by the FTC. Stipulating Defendants, and those persons or entities in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, whether acting directly or through any entity, corporation, subsidiary, division, or other device, hereby forever waive, release, discharge, and disclaim all right, title, and interest in the assets held in the above-listed accounts;

B. In the event of any default by Stipulating Defendants on any obligation imposed under this Section, including, but not limited to, the failure to timely and completely fulfill their payment obligations:

1. The judgment imposed herein will not be suspended, and the full amount of that judgment shall immediately become due and payable, plus interest from the date of entry of this

Order pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961, less any amounts already paid; and

2. The Commission shall be entitled to immediately exercise any and all rights and remedies against Stipulating Defendants and their property to collect the full amount of the judgment and interest thereon, less any amounts already paid;

C. All funds paid pursuant to this Order shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress, and any attendant expenses for the administration of such equitable relief fund. Stipulating Defendants shall cooperate fully to assist the Commission in identifying Consumers who may be entitled to redress pursuant to this Order. If the Commission determines, in its sole discretion, that redress to Consumers is wholly or partially impracticable or funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds for such other equitable relief (including Consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendants' practices alleged in the Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited to the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Stipulating Defendants shall have no right to challenge the Commission's choice of remedies under this Section, and shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution chosen by the Commission. This judgment for equitable monetary relief is solely remedial in nature and is not a fine, penalty, punitive assessment, or forfeiture;

D. Stipulating Defendants relinquish all dominion, control, and title to the funds paid to the fullest extent permitted by law. Stipulating Defendants shall make no claim to or demand return of the funds, directly or indirectly, through counsel or otherwise;

E. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Stipulating Defendants are hereby required, unless they already have done so, to furnish to the Commission their taxpayer identifying numbers

(social security numbers or employer identification numbers), which shall be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of their relationship with the government. Stipulating Defendants Jeffrey P. Wolf and Alfred H. Wolf are further required, unless they already have done so, to provide the Commission with clear, legible and full-size photocopies of all valid driver's licenses that each possesses, which will be used for reporting and compliance purposes;

F. Stipulating Defendants agree that the facts as alleged in the Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true, without further proof, in any bankruptcy case or subsequent civil litigation pursued by the Commission to enforce its rights to any payment or money judgment pursuant to this Order, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case. Stipulating Defendants further stipulate and agree that the facts alleged in the Complaint establish all elements necessary to sustain an action pursuant to, and that this Order shall have collateral estoppel effect for purposes of, Section 523(a)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2)(A);

G. Stipulating Defendants shall provide the Commission, or its agent, within thirty (30) days of such a request, the name, last known address, telephone number, date of purchase, program(s) purchased, total amount paid to Defendants, amount of any full or partial refund, credit card, debit card, or bank account information, and the complete file record, including computer records, for each consumer who paid any money to Defendants, and any further information the Commission deems necessary to effectuate any redress program for consumers; and

H. Proceedings instituted under this Section are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings the Commission may initiate to enforce this Order.

VI.

RIGHT TO REOPEN

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

A. By agreeing to this Order, Stipulating Defendants reaffirm and attest to the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of the financial statements signed by Stipulating Defendants and provided to the Commission, including all attachments and subsequent amendments and corrections thereto. Plaintiff's agreement to this Order is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Stipulating Defendants' financial condition, as represented in the financial statements and attachments submitted to the Commission, namely the financial statements of JPW Consultants, Inc., dated July 31, 2007, of Jeffrey P. Wolf dated July 31, 2007, and of Alfred H. Wolf dated July 31, 2007, which contain material information upon which the Commission relied in negotiating and agreeing to the terms of this Order;

B. If, upon motion of the Commission, the Court finds that any Stipulating Defendant failed to disclose any material Asset, materially misrepresented the value of any Asset, or made any other material misrepresentation in or omission from Stipulating Defendant's sworn financial statement or supporting documents, the suspended judgment entered in Section V shall become immediately due and payable as to that Stipulating Defendant (less any amounts already paid). Provided, however, that, in all other respects, this Order shall remain in full force and effect, unless otherwise ordered by the Court; and

C. Any proceedings instituted under this Section shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including, but not limited to, contempt proceedings, or any other proceedings that the Commission or the United States might initiate to enforce this Order. For purposes of this Section, Stipulating Defendants waive any right to contest any of the allegations in the Commission's Complaint.

VII.

B. Selling, renting, leasing, transferring, or otherwise disclosing the name, address, telephone number, Social Security number, account number, e-mail address, or other financial or identifying information of any Person about whom any Defendant obtained such information in connection with the activities alleged in the Complaint prior to the effective date of this Order.

Provided, however, that Stipulating Defendants may disclose identifying information to a law enforcement agency or as required by any law, regulation, or court order.

VIII.
