TO NON-CONSUMER CREDITORS OF:
Homeland Financial Services, National Support Services, LLC,
United Debt Recovery, LLC, Freedom First Financial, LLC, et al.

This notice is posted by Robb Evans and Robb Evans & Associates LLC, the Court-appointed Receiver for Homeland Financial Services, National Support Services, LLC, United Debt Recovery, LLC, Freedom First Financial, LLC, et al. (Receivership Defendants) in a regulatory action filed by the Federal Trade Commission. The Receiver posts this notice to inform all potential non-consumer creditors (a non-consumer creditor is one whose claim is not based on injury suffered as a result of the Receivership Defendants providing debt or credit counseling services to the creditor) of an approved claim filing and allowance procedure.

The Receiver has now obtained District Court approval for a requested claims filing and allowance procedure. The Court has ordered the following:

1. The Court set the date of January 31, 2008 as the Claims Bar Date for claims of non-consumer creditors.
2. If you are a non-consumer creditor and believe you have a claim against one of the Receivership Defendants, your claim must be in writing and delivered to the Receiver by the Claims Bar Date, or else your claim will be barred and not allowed.

If you send the Receiver a timely claim please include all documentation which supports your asserted claim amount. If the Receiver is unable to approve your claim or resolve any differences about the claim with you, the Receiver will seek disallowance or determination of the claim in District Court. Please remember the Court has set the Claims Bar Date at January 31, 2008.

Very truly yours,

/s/

Kenton Johnson
Deputy to the Receiver
